1 Do you practice as a lawyer for Facebook
2 now?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. So your role is not as a lawyer?

5 A. No.

6 Q. What is your role?

7 A. I'm a privacy program manager.

8 Q. And what's that?

9 A. I help the company with privacy by design
10 practices to help them improve user experiences as 11 they relate to privacy.

12 Q. And what does that mean?

13 A. Any new product or feature goes through a
14 cross-functional review process where I collaborate
15 with stakeholders who are interested in privacy
16 matters: our legal teams, policy teams, and others.
17 And then I serve as the liaison or interface between 18 those stakeholders and our product teams to help
19 make sure we build products with privacy in mind.

20 Q. How long have you been in that role?

21 A. I've been in that role since 2013.

22 Q. And when did you start with Facebook?

23 A. 2010.

24 Q. What did you start as with Facebook?

25 A. My first role at Facebook was on the

1 BY MR. HALL:

2 Q. Anything else?

3 A. Some -- an archive of screenshots and other
4 code.

5 Q. Anything else?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did you review anything related to the
8 design of the Terms of Service?

9 MR. NADOLENCO: Objection; vague as to
10 "design," which I'm sure was one of our objections.

11 THE WITNESS: Just the archive that I
12 mentioned earlier.

13 BY MR. HALL:

14 Q. And what's the archive?

15 A. The project that I helped manage with our
16 paralegal team to create an archive of past terms
17 and policies.

18 Q. When did you create that archive?

19 A. I believe it was in the past year and a
20 half.

21 Q. And who was involved in that project?

22 A. Paralegal, as well as in-house counsel.

23 Q. And when you say "paralegal," is that a
24 person?

25 A. Yes.
